

Absolutism: France, England, and Russia 1600-1700s Map Activity

Instructions: Use the reference maps provided on Canvas to help you complete your blank map.

Pro Tip: Use colored pencils for best results then fold and glue the map into the center of pages 4-5 of your notebook when finished – DO NOT cut this map in half!

1. Locate and label the following bodies of water:
 - a. Atlantic Ocean
 - b. Mediterranean Sea
 - c. Black Sea
 - d. Baltic Sea
 - e. North Sea

2. Locate and label the following places in Europe:

<ol style="list-style-type: none">a. Hungaryb. Austriac. Polandd. Brandenburge. Prussiaf. Switzerland	<ol style="list-style-type: none">g. Swedenh. United Netherlandsi. Denmark-Norwayj. Italian Statesk. Portugall. Ireland
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

3. Locate and label Great Britain (England and Scotland) and shade it in BLUE.

4. Locate and label France and shade it in YELLOW.

5. Locate and label Spain and shade it in PURPLE.

6. Locate and label the Russian Empire and shade it in GREEN.

7. Locate and label the Ottoman Empire and shade it in ORANGE.

8. Locate and label and shade in the Holy Roman Empire in RED.

Now look at the completed map. What problems do you foresee for France, England, and Russia in the 1700s? Why?

[Type your answer to this question on Canvas in at least 3-5 sentences.]

Fold and glue (DO NOT CUT) into crease of pages 4-5 in your notebook AFTER you have completed the map.

