

Map #35

Monday:

1. Which seas surrounded ancient Greece?
2. The mainland of Greece was a peninsula. Name at least five city-states located on the mainland.

Tuesday:

1. The city-states of Olympia and Sparta were part of which region?
2. The beginnings of the Greek civilization can be traced to the largest island in ancient Greece. Name the island.

Wednesday:

1. Which city-state was named after the goddess Athena?
2. The ancient Greeks believed in gods and goddesses who made their home on a mountain. Name the Greek mountain.

Thursday:

1. The first recorded ancient Olympic Games took place in which city-state in 776 B.C.E.?
2. A modern-day long-distance race is named after which city-state?

Friday:

1. What three areas made up a city-state?
2. During a major battle, the Greeks sank half the Persian fleet off the coast of this island. Name this small island.

Challenge:

Describe the location of Ancient Greece using this map. Which two modern-day countries would you visit to see sites from Ancient Greece?

A History Map: Ancient Greece

