

Name: _____ Date: _____ Per: _____

UNIT 1 Review Guide

Due: _____

/10

Map of the World

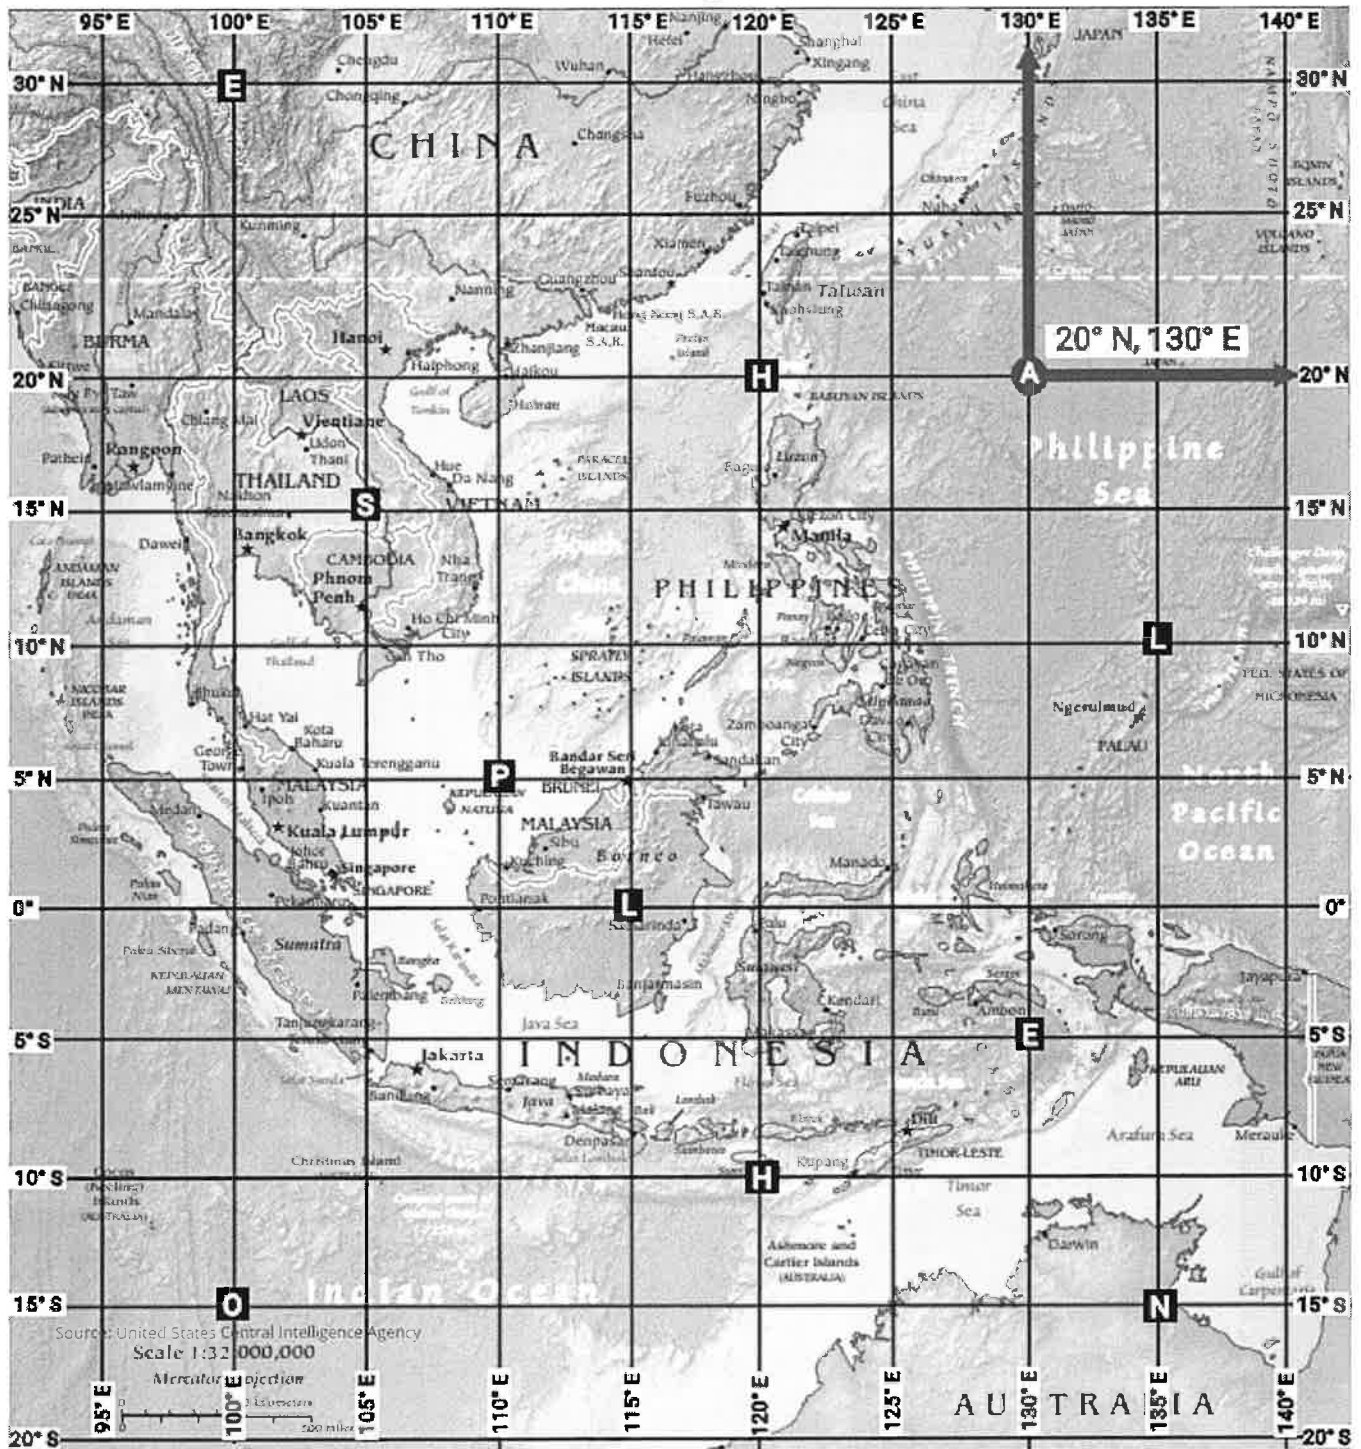

Continents:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____

Oceans:

- A. _____
- B. _____
- C. _____
- D. _____
- E. _____

SOLVE THE LATITUDE & LONGITUDE RIDDLE

Directions: Solve the following riddle by matching each coordinate with its letter on the map.

What do turtles use to communicate?

15°N, 105°E

20°N, 120°E

5°S, 130°E

10°N, 135°E

0°, 115°E

5°N, 110°E

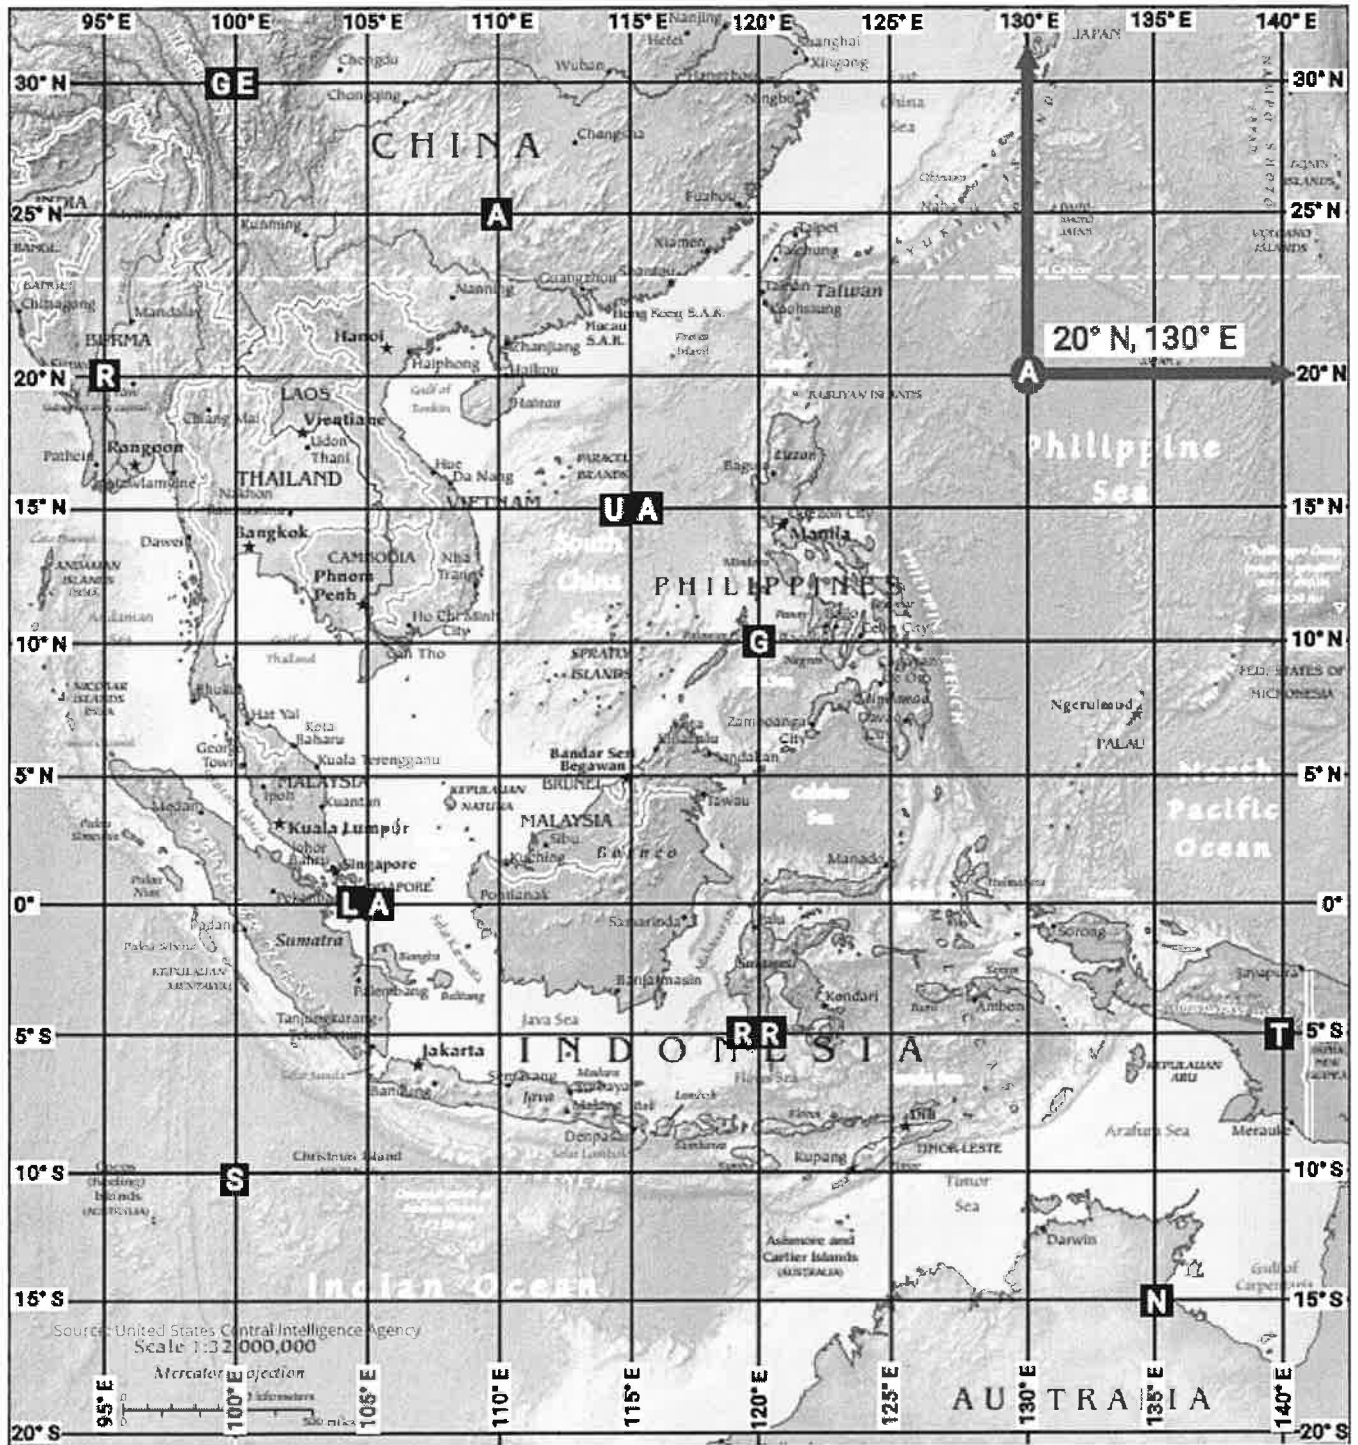

10°S, 120°E

15°S, 100°E

15°S, 135°E

30°N, 100°E

SOLVE THE LATITUDE & LONGITUDE RIDDLE

Directions: Solve the following riddle by matching each coordinate with its letter on the map.

What subject do pirates struggle with the most?

0° , 105° E 15° S, 135° E 10° N, 120° E 15° N, 115° E 30° N, 100° E

25° N, 110° E 20° N, 95° E 5° S, 120° E 5° S, 140° E 10° S, 100° E

UNIT 1 VOCAB CROSSWORD

Answer clues on the back to fill in the crossword puzzle.

Hint: Look at your Flippity Review to help you!

Across

- explains the meaning of symbols used on the map
- refers to a location's unique physical and human characteristics
- located on the compass rose, they are North, South, East, and West
- are designed to show a particular theme connected with a specific geographic area
- the relationship between human societies and the natural world around them
- tropic line that runs 23.5 degrees South Latitude of the Equator
- the approximate spot where something is located, usually compared to other places
- areas with similar characteristics
- weather patterns in an area usually experienced over a long period of time
- the exact spot where something is located, usually its latitude and longitude
- illustrate the landscape features of an area, such as the mountains, rivers and lakes

Down

- some maps will have grid lines to help locate places on the map
- imaginary lines that run from the North to South Pole (top to bottom) around the world
- one of the seven major landmasses of the earth
- refers to a specific place or position on Earth's surface
- half of the earth (there are 4)
- Northeast, Southeast, Northwest, and Southwest
- shows direction on the map, usually shown with cardinal directions and sometimes intermediate directions
- a change in the accuracy of shapes, direction, or distances shown on maps
- the study of Earth and the people who live on it and how they use it
- our surroundings
- runs at 0 degrees between the Eastern and Western hemispheres
- show major and minor highways, roads, airports, railroad tracks, cities, and other points of interest in an area
- runs at 0 degrees between the Northern and Southern hemispheres
- explains the ratio of distance on the map to distance on the ground
- imaginary lines that run from the West to East (left to right) around the world
- refers to the mobility of people, goods, and ideas across various locations
- use lines to show the shape and elevation of an area
- tropic line that runs 23.5 degrees North Latitude of the Equator
- indicate state and national boundaries as well as capital and major cities
- more detailed (usually larger) version of a specific area on a map
- tells you what the map is about